The Way We Were: Volume Three

By Amorette Allison

The majority of original photographs were taken by Steve Allison, Star photographer, who also did the scanning and preparation of the vintage pictures for this book. Without his efforts, this book would have been impossible to complete.

The photograph of the Pine Hills auditorium was taken by Chad Sutter.

The photographers responsible for many of the vintage photographs are, sadly, unknown but we appreciate their work in preserving our heritage.

This book would not have been possible without the Miles City Star; the City of Miles City, which provides partial funding for the Historic Preservation Office; the State Historical Society, which also provides funding; the First Interstate Bank Foundation; the Cultural and Aesthetic Trust of the State of Montana; and numerous other generous sponsors.
